Included in this sense of community is the concept of membership, which is the sense that a person belongs to the community, and the concept of influence, which is the feeling that the person matters to the community and that the community matters to the person. Meanwhile, we rededicate ourselves to the service of Christ and of people in joyful submission to his authority over the whole of our lives Mark ; Heb. We are deeply grateful to all these orga- nizations for their continued support. Contrasting this analysis to the liberating message of Christ, they became aware of their oppression, and decided to act upon it.
